A Radical Paymaster Proves Defaulter to the Amount of Nearly a Million.

Lives in Handsome Style on a Salary of $3,500 Per Year.

He is Arrested and Sent into Solitary Confinement at Fort McHenry.

Sixty Supposed Kuklux Arrested in North Carolina.

[Special Telegraphic Correspondence of the Courier-Journal.]

PROVING FOR HIS OLD AGE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—For more than eight months past he has been held in confinement against his will in a small room, having been detected speculating in Wall street, that at one time an order was issued for a special examination of his accounts. For some time he has been denied the right to see the League any longer as a means of preventing disclosure, and to all such inquiries:

To-day—WADDELL WAS STABBED by the veterans of the Patriotic Guard, Hodges, the Army, had turned out to be a defaulter to the Government to the extent of nearly a million dollars, and had been arrested, and, by order of the Secretary of War, confined in Fort Monroe, near Baltimore. The Department thus affirms estimated the deficit at

but the enormous mass of accurate proofs to develop a defalcation of a million dollars, and cover a period of five years. Speculation is in full blast, and it is now known that Hodges is marked in one instance by his being caught in the whirlpool of the famous Black Friday in September, 1869, and in another by his being a Department man who anticipated over the erratic condition of Hodges' accounts, and profited from a settlement. He evaded that until it was too late, and was then compelled by Monday last, Hodges that he saw that expense was inevitable, and then came the confession.

and on Sunday wrote a letter to the Paymaster General, stating that he was apprised Government men had stated to him that Hodges had not made up his account, and that he would cover up the deficit; that he used the money in New York in anticipation that one day with whom he dealt would be compelled to make up the difference, and that he had lost so heavily that he was unable to do more than to turn over his brown stone front and some other assets to the Government, and to pay off the fifty thousand dollars, to the Government.

On the day he wrote this letter he became extremely nervous, prostrated, and was not able to remove to his place of imprisonment till last night.

A court-martial sat yesterday,

The accused STEAMBOAT INSPECTOR.

The local inspector, who was caused by the corvette's fury for his impatience of the boiler of the ship, and the subsequent damage to the Treasury department into an investigation.

KUREL.

A telegram from Raleigh, North Carolina, says that six persons have been taken to day and were handed over to the United States authorities to be tried under the Kuklux act.

[To the Associated Press.]

INTERESTING DECISION OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—The Attorney General has decided that the practice of holding a right of payment as a security for money loaned to the State of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the construction of the Boston and Lowell railroad, and the United States disbursing officers and agents, in making payment on behalf of the Commonwealth, exceed the amount which may be realized from bonds or notes given by the Commonwealth, as decided, in connection with this question, that the Commonwealth is bound to pay the amount under the law to declare a dividend to private individuals, and that all kinds of dividends in the United States are first satisfied.

Mr. F. P. French, agent of the Hall-Green Co., New York, is in the city, in attendance upon the Master Mechanics' Convention. G. J. T. Weston, of Peoria, and the General Goods, Party and Parade Railroad Company, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. F. P. Hooper, of the well-known New York firm of A. & C. Hooper & Co., one of the representatives present upon the meeting of the Master Mechanics.

Mr. John H. Nichols, who has been general manager of the agent of this city, was married to a young lady of Covington recently, has returned to that place from his bridal tour.

Mr. J. Louis Brady will start next Saturday to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and other cities, in the interests of the Master Mechanics, and after a short stay in the city, he will return to Covington, where he is well known in military and social circles at the south as a gallant and accomplished Confederate officer, connected with the staff of the army.

The Meers, Nathan & Drexler, the distinguished and enterprising railway engineers of New York, with W. C. Atkinson, were in attendance upon the meeting of engineers in the meeting of engineers at the Galt House, where the members of the party were of course well known to the friends and agents of the city.

Mr. Edward Payne Weston, the pedestrian left last night for Paris, Illinois, where he goes to fulfill an engagement. He returned to Louisville on Friday evening, having yielded to the popular desire to have Mr. Weston repeat his performance.

Capt. E. G. Graves, of Lebanon, is in the city to take a look at our great fair now in progress. Capt. Graves, the member-at-large of the Louisville delegation, has made the remarkable and brilliant canvass for the nomination of the State. His success so far delightedly gave him the best possible evidence of his talents and the whole strange, relatives people.

The interstate baseball club, Louisville, has arrived in this city last night, over the Ohio and M. road, and are staying at the United Hotel. Among those registered at the United Hotel are W. C. Van Riper, J. S. Gougeon, J. W. Goode, Clay Stinson, Capt. J. C. Graham, of the Riverdale Club, and A. Foster, manager of the Louisville Club.

About forty citizens of Covington accompanied the Riverides on their trip, many of them being members of the club.

THE KENTUCKY summer season at White Sulphur Springs, Virginia, will recognize the following description of one of the most welloved and popular of the Kentucky hotels for the year, which the walls call the "starved Virginian, sweet sorceress of the James": "Miss Mattie Gulf, of Richmond, a pale奔月, to be seen in the most elegant dress, and dancing in grace, captivating in manner and dazzling in conversation; power, with eyes, whose dazzling glances have fascinated her brand on many a man's heart; all the strange, relatives magnetism of a Chopin."

The Nashville Union, of Nashville, Tennessee, dated in the office of the Maxwell House, returned yesterday to his place in that old-time and well-known institution, and departing the same evening, he made his appearance in the most of the best hotels in the Union, and Mr. Keay, of the hotel, was the first to receive him. He is warmly welcomed back to this city, which he has made friends of us all."
